Conference Policies, Terms and Conditions

About
 The APDT Virtual Conference is an event hosted by the Association of Professional Dog Trainers (APDT).

Personal Information
 By registering for and/or participating in the event, you acknowledge that any personal information that you provide or that we collect from you will be used to grant access to the virtual conference sessions, exhibitors, etc. through a third-party provider and shared with exhibitors and/or sponsors per the opt-in statement during the registration process.

Recording Notice
 All event sessions will be recorded. By attending the event, you consent to and authorize the use of your name and written comments or any reproduction thereof by us in any media whatsoever in connection with the promotion of the event and our programs, materials and services.

Information Shared with Exhibitors, Sponsors and Supporting Organizations
 Exhibitors receive an attendee mailing list prior to and after the conference as part of their sponsorship. By completing conference registration, you agree to have your mailing information (name, title, company, mailing address) and limited demographic data shared with exhibitors and sponsors for this purpose.

Mailing and demographic information for attendees who reside in the EU and EEA are excluded from these exhibitor mailing lists.

We permit select sponsors to send limited emails to attendees from our email server. You may opt-out of sponsored emails during the registration process.

Conference Communications
 By agreeing to these terms and conditions, you consent to receive emails and/or push notifications from APDT containing important information about the conference including news, giveaways and promotions. These emails are designed to ensure attendees are fully informed about the conference and receive the most satisfactory experience possible.

We may also send you emails about APDT membership, similar APDT events or other APDT products and services.

Non-payment Clause
 Once a registration is submitted, it becomes binding and all fees are due and payable according to the terms herein. If you cancel the registration, or do not attend the event, the registration fees as dictated by the cancellation policy below remain due and are nonrefundable.

APDT reserves the right to reject any registration not in compliance with event eligibility requirements. APDT will only refund registration fees as the cancellation policy listed below dictates for any rejected registrations based on the date of rejection.

If an event registration is purchased as a paid member and the membership expires and is not renewed prior to the event in October 2020, the registrant will be subject to the non-member registration rate.

Credit Card Payments
 Credit card payments are due at the time of registration. Any registration without a valid credit card payment at the time of registration may be required to re-register or may incur additional fees.

Check Payments
 Check payments are due within 30 days of the attendee's registration date, and prior to any rate changes, or the registration will be cancelled and re-registering at the current rate will be required. Check payments should arrive by and no later than October 1, 2020, to allow for adequate processing time.

Once the check payment is received, an additional payment confirmation will be sent. If the check is returned or cannot be processed, the registration will be cancelled. Please allow 5–7 business days for the processing of conference payments upon receipt by APDT. A copy of the registration confirmation letter is required with the registrant's payment to ensure proper allocation. Check must be payable to APDT.
